WM. KAYE, Mayor.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21, 8 A. M.

HONORABLE—Honest—Impressum, or no so honest.—Capt. John T. Allen advises this morning that he will purchase in the opening market houses suitable for artillery and cavalry purposes, and will give $175 for the former and $165 for the latter, an advance of $10 to $20 a head. It is hoped that everybody who has horses to sell will respond to this call of the Government, for horse it must have, by impressment if not otherwise. Farmers would do well to bring in such of their horses as suitable and thereby save them from falling into the hands of the horse-thieves, or guerrillas, as some call them, or being pressed by order of the Government.

THE FEMALE RIOTERS.—The women charged with assaulting Elizabeth and Tennessee Brown and demolishing their furniture, received a hearing yesterday morning before Judge Johnson. A host of witnesses were introduced, but no one could identify any of the guilty parties. One of the accused was released last Saturday and presented as a witness, but nothing could be learned from her to make out a clear case. Yesterday morning Alice McDonald was discharged to the care of a friend, but she refused to make any statements whatever. She expressed a desire to remain in New Orleans and requested the court to issue a writ of habeas corpus to release her copy of which you have.
